

REMARKS/ARGUMENTS

Review of the specification has revealed a typographical error appearing at page 15, line 17 where the term "lecithin" should read "lysine". This error is obvious from the title appearing at page 15, line 14 which refers to formulations comprising "desloreline and lysine", as well as from the formulations I and II described on page 13 and from Figure 1. No new matter is entered. Entry of the amendment prior to issuance of the application is respectfully requested.

Respectfully submitted,

NIXON & VANDERHYE P.C.
